Man With Sheep In Snow

Man with sheep, rescueing in snow
Outside against elements
The cold you save them from
But others are out there. Too.

To care is the question man in the cold.
Do you toil to save those that you don't own ?
What then of thyself ?
Who owns you, and are they at your call ?

To believe in an owner.
Of a thing or a person ; idea perhaps !
Then to try and save another
And bring belief by courrier, faster.

Man from a world complete
With you an all in single belief
One in which you or another fought
And beat to win. To win..

A different point of view
Perspective changed to fit your thoughts
Or a world built Always for you
At least man from the start.

Man with a sheep.
Keeping the old alive inside.
A thing that takes believers back.
To a family home.
